Setting up open jails in States

†2137. SHRI RAMACHANDRA KHUNTIA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have formulated any guidelines or rules for setting up "Open Jail" in all States;

(b) if so, the number of States where open jails have been set up as per the said guidelines; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) to (c) Central Government have not issued guidelines for setting up of open jails. 'Prisons' being a States subject as per entry 4 of the State List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, it is for the State Governments to evolve their own guidelines to set up open prisions. As per the available information, open prisons exist in the States of Andhra Pradesh (2), Assam (1), Gujarat (2), Himachal Pradesh (1), Karnataka (1), Kerala (1), Maharashtra (2), Punjab (2), Rajasthan (7), Tamil Nadu (1) and West Bengal (1).

Establishment of Balwadi-cum-Creche in each Prison

2138. SHRI K. KALAVENKATA RAO: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the action proposed to establish Balwadi-cum-Creche in every prison to create a normal environment for children in jails with jailed mothers; and

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) the steps taken to provide special diet to such children?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) and (b) 'Prisons' being a State subject as per entry 4 of the State List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, it is for the State Governments to establish Balwadi-cum-Creche in prisons for children in jails and provide special diet to children in jails with jailed mothers.

Non-utilisation of funds meant for modernisation of Police

2139. SHRI SATISH PRADHAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the funds provided for modernisation of Police Force have not been utilised fully and properly by the various State Governments;

(b) if so, the details thereof alongwith the list of such States; and

(c) whether this will not affect our nation's security?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I.D. SWAMI): (a) to (c) To supplement the efforts of the State Government to modernize their police forces, the Ministry of Home Affairs have been operating a Non-plan Scheme for Modernisation of State Police Forces since 1969-70 on 50:50 cost sharing basis between the Centre and the States. The annual Central allocation was Rs. 50 crore till 1998-99 which was raised to Rs. 200 crore for 1999-2000. To expedite the process of modernization and to get the State Police Forces equipped adequately quickly to face the challenges of organized crime, militancy, terrorism and threat to the internal security of the country, the annual central allocation under the Scheme was enhanced to Rs. 1000 crore from Rs. 200 crore with effect from 2000-01. During 2000-01 amd 2001-02, Central share of Rs. 1000 crore each was released to the various State Governments under the Scheme. However, quite a few State Governments have not been able to utilize the funds fully in respect of the plans approved for these two financial years. A statement showing the plan approved and funds utilized by the State Governments is given (See below). The Central Government have been advising the States to accord priority to the implementation of the Scheme and utilize the approved amounts, to strengthen the national security. The Deputy Prime Minister
